At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of said city on Thursday, January 22nd, 1914. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Maudie D. McFarland, Complainant.

James McFarland, Defendant.

IN CHANCERY.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the state of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the plaintiff having made a return upon the original process of summons issued, and that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against the defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the ground of adultery. And an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered, that the said defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof, to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the ground of adultery; and do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks, in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria, Va., and that a copy be sent by registered mail, by the clerk of this court, to the last known address, residence and abode of defendant, to wit: No. 310 F. St., N. W., Washington, D. C., as stated in the application of this order of publication, which shall be certified by the clerk of this court, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of this Court, on or before the next rule day of this court.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Three men are believed to have met death in a fire which broke out yesterday afternoon in the five-story building occupied by the Houghton-Detroit Elevator Company in the downtown section of Detroit, Mich. The three men were working on the fifth floor. A fourth man escaped.

Bryant H. Howard, a San Diego, Cal., millionaire, was made defendant in a $1,500,000 breach of promise suit filed yesterday in Los Angeles, by Maud Armfield, who alleges that Howard is the father of her 2-year-old daughter. In her action of Miss Armfield asserted she married Howard at San Diego in 1909, only to learn in the following February that a complaint charging Howard with bigamy had been issued. Howard, she alleged, influenced her to obtain an annulment of marriage. After he had obtained a divorce from his legal wife she said Howard refused to keep his promise to marry her.

A judgment for $75,000 was filed in New York yesterday against John G. A. Leishman, former Ambassador to Germany, in favor of Raymond, Pynchon & Co., New York, bankers and brokers. The amount was due on a judgment recovered in Allegheny county, Pa., for money loaned and stocks bought and sold in New York city.

Alleging conspiracy, claiming $1,000,000 damages, and asking body judgments against the national and State officers of the United Mine Workers of America and all national organizers who have participated in the Colorado coal strike, suit will be filed today in the district court at Trinidad by counsel for the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

Mrs. Mary H. Smith, widow of the Rev. Cornelius B. Smith, D. D., late pastor emeritus of St. James Protestant Episcopal Church, in New York, and sister-in-law of Bishop Mackay Smith, of Philadelphia, was killed Wednesday night in an elevator accident in an apartment house in New York, where she had gone to dine with friends.

Both branches of city council of Philadelphia, unanimously have adopted a resolution authorizing Mayor Blankenburg to offer a reward of $5,000 for the recovery of 7-year-old Warren McCarriek, and the arrest and conviction of his abductors.

With little friction, a complete State ticket, excepting candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, but including a candidate for United States senator, was nominated, and a platform, which declared in favor of a State-wide direct primary law was adopted by the Democrats of Indiana in State convention at Indianapolis yesterday. United States Senator Benjamin F. Shively was renominated by acclamation, as he was not opposed.

The three officials of the Western Fuel Company who were recently convicted of conspiracy to defraud the Federal government, were given prison sentences last night by Judge Maurice T. Doelling, of the United States Court, in San Francisco, Cal. James B. Smith, vice-president and general manager, was sentenced to serve one and a half years and to pay a fine of $5,000; Fred C. Mills, superintendent, was also sentenced to one and a half years in San Quentin, and Edwards H. Meyer, a weigher, was given a year in the Alameda county jail.

Because his brother's wife, Mary Francis, 26, refused to elope with him yesterday morning, Steven Francis, 24, of Newark, Ohio, shot her and fired two bullets into his own body. Francis died and the woman's death is expected momentarily.

Denial was forthcoming yesterday at the White House of a report that Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, was seriously ill. On the contrary, it was stated, she is rapidly recovering from the effects of a fall she sustained recently.

Eighteen girls, from seven to seventeen years old, some of them only partially clothed, and twenty Catholic sisters, of St. Cecilia's Academy, at 601 East Capitol street, Washington, were driven from their rooms into the cold and storm at 11 o'clock last night by fire which broke out in the basement of the building. When the fire was put out the girls, with their guardians who had found temporary shelter in houses nearby, returned to the academy, which was not damaged in the upper floors. No one was hurt.

When you buy Foley's Honey and Tar Compound because just a few doses stop the cough and heal the cold, one bottle lasts a long time and the last dose is as good as the first. Mrs. SSS 20 Van Buren St. Kingston, N. Y., says: "Father has laryngitis and his cough was something terrible and he could not sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stopped his coughing, but it brought back my voice to me after a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Plain Truth That's Worth Money.

Using Foley's Honey and Tar for a cough and cold is just practical common sense. It is exactly made to stop a cough and check a cold and it prevents laryngitis, bronchitis or pneumonia. F. E. Monaghan, Monomie, Wis., says: "I am exposed to all kinds of weather and I find Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always fixes me up in good shape when I catch cold or have a bad cough. I recommend it gladly." Refuse substitutes. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

BALK AT EARLY RISING.

New York Unemployed Sent To Farms Refuse to Work For Wages Offered.

Fonda, N. Y., March 20.—Fifty of the 70 unemployed New Yorkers, who came here Tuesday as the first installment in Governor Glynn's campaign to place the city's workless people on up-state farms, were lodged Wednesday in the village engine house. Only 20 of the arrivals accepted offers of employment with farmers, although the wages offered were those generally paid to farm hands here.

The 50 who are idle are dependent on the townspeople for shelter and food. The neighborhood farmers do not appear enthusiastic over their new help, as the men are absolutely ignorant of farm work.

They demand $45 a month and maintenance, while the farmers offer only $20 for men with no experience and $25 for those who have worked on farms before.

A tailor, who had never seen a cow or a live fowl, was willing to be a farmer for $50, 25 of this in advance. He failed to convince any prospective employer. Several others were willing to work, but could not get up before 9 A. M.

Deputy State Commissioner of Agriculture C. W. Larnon, who was in charge of the men, would not say what would be done with those who did not secure work. Fonda residents are fearful that they will be left here. The men are getting restless.

STEALS GIRL TO WED HER.

Kidnaper Skips Over Line When Crime Finds Him Out.

Malone, N. Y., March 20.—Stealing a girl to wed her; frustrated at the home of a minister where he went to have the nuptial knot tied; revealed in his true light and crossing the line into Canada to escape the consequences of his act, Charles Dawson created excitement yesterday in the little village of Fort Covington 15 miles north of here, on the boundary line.

Dawson went to St. Antoine P. Q. and engaged Miss Mary Gebel, a very pretty French girl, as a domestic and started with her in a sleigh for home. Dawson suddenly said to the girl: "I've got you now and we are going to Fort Covington, N. Y., and be married. Don't cry or jump out. If you do, I'll kill you."

The startled girl almost swooned with terror. The man made her accompany him to the residence of Rev. J. H. Gardner, Presbyterian minister, who refused to marry the couple. They then went to Rev. J. G. Benson, Methodist minister, and here the girl broke loose from Dawson, and in another room managed to inform the minister she was kidnapped and did not wish to marry. Dawson skipped for Canada just in time to escape serious consequences.

St. Louis, March 20.—The inventory of the estate of Adolphus Busch lists personal property aggregating $17,000,000.

All stocks and bonds are listed at par value, which in many cases is below the market value, and therefore the $17,000,000 is but an approximation to the actual value.

One hundred and fifty pieces of real estate are given, but the value is not estimated. The estate has been generally estimated at $25,000,000.

Edwin A. Howard, Complainant.

Ethel Howard, Defendant.

IN CHANCERY.

This cause coming on to be heard this 16th day of March, 1914, upon the application of the complainant, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 16th day of March, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the defendant, on the ground of willful desertion and abandonment. An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Ethel Howard, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that she is a non-resident of said State, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect her interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of the said city, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non-resident defendant, at No. 310 Seaton Place, Northeast, Washington, D. C., her last known place of abode.
